

H. R. 202.

DECEMBER 20, 1822.

Read twice, and committed to a committee of the whole House to-morrow.

A BILL

Concerning the apportionment of Representatives in the State of Alabama.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That,
3 from and after the third day of March, one thousand eight 4 hundred and twenty-three, the state of Alabama shall have 5 three members in the House of Representatives, in the Con-6 gress of the United States, it appearing, from the returns of 7 the marshal of Alabama, deposited in the office of the Secre-
8 tary of State of the United States, that the said state of Ala-
9 bama, at the passage of the act, entitled "An act for the ap-
10 portionment of Representatives among the several states, ac-
11 cording to the fourth census," approved March seven, one 12 thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, was entitled to the 13 number of three Representatives, according to the population
14 of the said state, and the rates established by the said act.